MISTRAL KITCHEN: Open for Business

The much-anticipated grand-opening of MistralKitchen took place on Friday, December 11, at the restaurant's ground-floor location at the West 8th office tower. The opening weekend gave world-renowned executive chef/owner William Belickis the chance to host hundreds of satisfied diners — both long-time customers and those who recently discovered William's culinary brilliance — at the 5,000-square-foot space designed by celebrated architect Tom Kundig, a partner at Seattle's Olson Kundig Architects.

Speaking of Belickis and Kundig, the two were prominently featured in a recent Seattle Metropolitan Magazine article that explored how cutting-edge design and culinary trends intersect seamlessly at Mistral's hip new West 8th digs. Read more here
